South from Lake Louise, trails lead to the Moraine and Plain of Six Glaciers areas. The Lake Louise — Moraine Lake Trail, through either of these valleys is a hike of more than 15 km. You may travel south on the direct trail to Moraine Lake which parallels the Moraine Lake Road but the southern half of this trail is not maintained. From the northern half of this trail branches west to Paradise Valley into which you may travel via the Larch Valley and Chalet/Lake Louise Road. A scenic drive to Lake Louise, Paradise Creek or Mirror Lake via the Trans-Canada Highway at the Lake Louise Village marks the southern end of the Icefields Parkway, a scenic roadway which ranks among the great highroads of the world and gives easy access to some of the most spectacular scenery of the Canadian Rockies. The parkway follows the steep-walled valleys between the mountain ranges running to Jasper.

Approaching or feeding any wild animal is dangerous although it may appear tame, an animal can inflict injury without warning. Out of respect for the wild and the natural beauty of the area, please take your garbage with you and avoid causing any disturbance to the wildlife.

A scenic drive to Lake Louise, Paradise Creek or Mirror Lake via the Trans-Canada Highway at the Lake Louise Village will take you to the highlights of hiking and walking trails in the Lake Louise area.

Trails lead through the most magnificent valleys of the area: Louise, Paraître and Moraine. Descriptions of these trails will give you an idea of what to expect on your trip. For further information, contact warden offices or information centres.

If you are planning to stay overnight in the backcountry, obtain a park use permit before starting your trip. For further information, contact warden offices or information centres.
