Welcome!

Whether you're looking for adventure, fun for the whole family, or a break from the everyday, Parks Canada has countless unique experiences to suit your needs. Walk the landscape where tens of thousands of Porcupine Caribou migrate every year. Or sleep when you want, eat when you want, or hike when you want because time has little meaning when the sun never sets.

It's time to connect!

With nature – with history – with friends and family.

EXPERIENCE AN ARCTIC OASIS

Ivvavik National Park

Join us on a guided, multi-day Arctic base camp trip into the heart of Ivvavik National Park. Hike to Inspiration Point and Halfway to Heaven, listen to the stories and learn about the culture of your Inuvialuit host. Fulfill your #ArcticDream among the mountains and rivers of the northern Yukon. Five-day catered trips or seven-day self-catered trips available.

NAH?A DEHÉ CLASSIC

Nahanni National Park Reserve

Make a pilgrimage to the Gahnjithah Tufa Mounds, home of Yamba Deja, the horizon walker of Dene legend. Ready your paddling skills on gentle moving water for three days before navigating white-water through Canada's deepest river canyons. Both guided and non-guided trips available.

EXPERIENCE THE TOP OF THE WORLD

Quttinirpaaq National Park

Partake in a guided backpacking trip or base-camp experience in Quttinirpaaq National Park or hike independently under 24-hour daylight to explore this High Arctic wilderness and ancient Inuit homeland. Visitors will return home able to brag to their friends and family about hiking at the Top of the World: a place few others will go.

WHERE NATURE AND CULTURE CONNECT

Torngat Mountains National Park

Explore and experience Torngat Mountains National Park. Learn about and experience Inuit culture, see northern wildlife, watch the icebergs, hike traditional Inuit travel routes, stay overnight at a satellite camp, have a picnic on the beach, or take part in evening presentations with researchers, Parks Canada staff or Inuit Elders.

GO WHERE FEW HAVE BEEN

Tuktut Nogait National Park

Be one of the few to embark on this guided, catered, multi-day Arctic base camp experience with Parks Canada staff and an Inuvialuit host. Feel the powerful connection the Inuvialuit people have with the seemingly endless arctic landscape of Tuktut Nogait National Park. The stories and warmth of your host will stay with you forever.

A polar bear silhouette is walking on a beach at sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a golden glow and reflecting off the wet sand. The bear's shadow is cast on the sand in front of it.

Join Parks Canada on this guided, multi-day journey to the cradle of the Hudson's Bay Company in northern Manitoba. This first-of-its-kind package includes flights and accommodations, guided hikes, wildlife viewing, interpretation programs and time with a Cree Elder to share stories and culture.

ADVENTURE AT THE EDGE OF THE ARCTIC

Wapusk National Park

ASTRONOMY FESTIVAL UNDER NORTHERN SKIES

Wood Buffalo National Park

Take part in northern Canada's largest celebration of space and science during this three-day event in August in Wood Buffalo National Park. Activities for the novice star-gazer and the seasoned astronomer available during this incredible astronomical wilderness adventure.

5 EPIC ADVENTURES

1 A SNOWMOBILE EXPEDITION

Jump onto a snowmobile and ride atop frozen Wager Bay into Ukkusiksalik's icy winter landscape, watching for seals, caribou and polar bears and experiencing the wild Arctic under the Midnight Sun.

Ukkusiksalik National Park p. 13

2 A WHITE-WATER RAFTING ODYSSEY

The wild Alsek river slices through the remote interior of Kluane, running past glaciers and between soaring mountains. A multi-day rafting trip along the famous river is the adventure of a lifetime.

Kluane National Park and Reserve p. 12

3 CLIMB MOUNT THOR

Rope up and tackle the world's tallest cliff face on Thor Peak, a sheer 1,675 metre (5,495 foot) vertical climbing experience that is one of Auyuittuq National Park's signature extreme adventures.

Auyuittuq National Park p. 13

4 PADDLE ON THE THOMSEN RIVER

The gentle Thomsen River runs the length of Aulavik National Park. Paddlers are rewarded with a multi-week journey through rich arctic tundra, full of wildlife like muskoxen, hundreds of species of wildflowers and ancient archaeological sites.

Aulavik National Park p. 12

5 SEA KAYAK OLIVER SOUND

Paddle into Sirmilik's Oliver Sound, an Arctic fiord ending at Oliver Glacier, as whales and seals swim the dark blue waters. Hike and camp amid tundra wilderness under the Midnight Sun.
