Visitors to Prince Edward Island National Park will enjoy the fine beaches on the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

Airways conserve travelling time to the National Parks.

Speckled trout abound in the fast-flowing waters of Maligne River in Jasper National Park.

Paddling along the quiet waters of Echo Creek is a favourite summer pastime in Banff National Park.

Holing out on the 10th green of the beautiful golf links in Cape Breton Highlands National Park.

Swordfishing boats in South Ingonish Harbour are interesting features of Cape Breton Highlands National Park.

Hikers in Waterton Lakes National Park enjoy the view of Waterton Park Village from Mount Crandell.

Mount Chancellor rises above a transcontinental railway line and the Trans-Canada Highway in Yoho National Park.

Tennis competition is always keen on the well-maintained clay courts of Riding Mountain National Park.

The charm of St. Lawrence Islands National Park is realized on motorboat trips through the picturesque channels.

Park visitors meet wildlife at close range.
National Parks of Canada

Extending from the mountain regions of British Columbia to the Atlantic Coast of Nova Scotia, this chain of national playgrounds offers the enjoyment of majestic mountains, flower-decked headwaters, and famous resort, Jasper. Summer and winter sports, augmented by modern facilities, have an added zest nationwide and camping areas. Along the coasts of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, and the St. Lawrence Islands in Ontario, there are lakeshore and island park units, endowed by Nature with scenic beauty and location:

National Parks of Canada, their

FOREWORD

NATIONAL PARKS OF CANADA

VANCOUVER ISLAND, British Columbia. Recreational area, 13,650 square miles.

1. MOUNT REVELSTOKE. Rocky Mountains, British Columbia. Recreational area, 104 square miles.

2. GLACIER. Rocky Mountains, British Columbia. Recreational area, 100 square miles.

3. CANADA HIGHLANDS, British Columbia. Recreational area, 50 square miles.

4. BOW FALLS, Banff National Park. Recreational area, 50 square miles.

5. JASPER. Rocky Mountains, Alberta. Recreational area, 933 square miles.

6. ALBERTA ROCKIES, Banff National Park. Recreational area, 475 square miles.

7. WATERTON LAKES, Alberta. Recreational area, 1,800 square miles.

8. WOOD BUFFALO, Alberta and N.W.T. Recreational area, 17,300 square miles.

10. PRINCE ALBERT, Saskatchewan. Recreational area, 17,300 square miles.

11. DOUGLAS CREEK, Selkirk Mountains, British Columbia. Recreational area, 348 square miles.

12. FORT PRINCE OF WALES, Manitoba. Recreational area, 50 acres.

13. WOODHILL, Manitoba. Recreational area, 1,720 square miles.

15. PALMER ISLAND, Lake Huron. Recreational area, 21 acres.

17. FORT WELLINGTON, Ontario. Recreational area, 3 acres.

18. FORT CHAMBLY, Quebec. Recreational area, 7 acres.

19. BALDWIN ISLAND, Lake Huron. Recreational area, 6 acres.

21. PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND. Recreational area, 390 acres.

22. FORT WILLIAM, Northern Ontario. Recreational area, 1,500 acres.

23. FORT ANNE, Nova Scotia. Recreational area, 3 acres.

For additional information concerning any of these parks write to:

NATIONAL PARKS BUREAU, Department of Mines and Resources, Ottawa, Canada.

Ideal spots for trips or holidays are available in

Point Pelee National Park

Water sports are a feature of holiday life in Georgian Bay Islands National Park

Rugby Cape Breton Island coastline with mountain background. Fine seascapes from park highway.

High peaks, beautiful lakes, and famous resort, Jasper. Summer and winter sports.

Strip 25 miles long on north shore of island with museum near Louisburg. Ruins of walled city erected by the French 1720-40. Established 1941, area, 390 acres.

Aglow chocolates made daily are among one of the pleasures in Glaciers National Park.

Many points of interest in Waterton Lakes National Park are accessible over wood-poly trails.

Lakelands drive in Prince Albert National Park add interest to the day's outings.

Getting ready for a day's angling at beautiful Lake O'Hara in Yoho National Park

An Alpine camp in beautiful Eremite Valley in Jasper National Park

Miles of scenic drives pass once remote areas of former Lost Homestead, Lakefield National Park.