Overlooking the city of Victoria is the incomparable Craigdarroch Castle.

Built by coal baron Robert Dunsmuir during the reign of Queen Victoria and now a National Historic Site, the Castle has been meticulously restored to give visitors a glimpse of privileged life in the late 1890s. The Castle weaves a fascinating tale of an intriguing family – their achievements, their relationships and even their quirks. If you're in Victoria for a short time and you really want to experience something authentically Victorian, make plans to visit Craigdarroch Castle – Canada's Castle.
