Welcome to Gulf Islands National Park Reserve

\[\text{Welcome to Gulf Islands National Park Reserve}\]

\[\text{Plan Your Visit} \quad \text{Getting here:}\text{ Set sail aboard BC Ferries to reach Pender, Saturna, Mayne, and Vancouver islands. Hop aboard the seasonal walk-on boats for a scenic island tour. For more information, visit: \url{bcferries.com}}\]

\[\text{Camping} \quad \text{Are you new to camping or a seasoned pro? Gulf Islands National Park Reserve offers outdoor overnight experiences for everyone. Book your favorite campsite, pack the car and take this family for a weekend adventure or a month-long blissful escape. Looking for an adventure? \url{bcferries.com}}\]

\[\text{Hiking} \quad \text{From easy shoreline trails to eye-popping mountain climbs, Gulf Islands National Park Reserve has it all. So lace up and prepare for an adventure! To learn about the vessels, please visit: \url{parkscanada.gc.ca/gulfislands}}\]

\[\text{Boating + Kayaking} \quad \text{Some campgrounds are accessible by water only. For more information, call: 1-877-737-3783.} \quad \text{See more at: \url{parkscanada.gc.ca/gulfislands}}\]

\[\text{Campground Information} \quad \text{Camping permit holders must be 18 years of age or older.} \quad \text{Alcohol consumption is only permitted on a registered campsite.} \quad \text{For more information, visit: \url{parkscanada.gc.ca/gulfislands}}\]

\[\text{Coast Salish Traditions} \quad \text{The Gulf Islands are part of the homeland of the Coast Salish First Nations. They have lived in this region for thousands of years and their knowledge, culture and oral history have been passed from generation to generation. Since time immemorial, the land and sea have nourished and sustained Coast Salish communities and their ties to the natural world can be seen in all aspects of their culture.} \quad \text{Discover these connections first-hand by participating in a Coast Salish Traditions activity this summer!} \quad \text{See more at: \url{facebook.com/GulfIslandsNPR}}\]

\[\text{BC Ferries Coastal Naturalist Program} \quad \text{During the summer months, Parks Canada and BC Ferries present the Coastal Naturalist program. These naturalists give talks about the surrounding shoreline and islands and how to enjoy these resources.} \quad \text{See more at: \url{bcferries.com}}\]

\[\text{Wildlife} \quad \text{Pinch me—this can’t be real!} \quad \text{An amazing variety of wildlife awaits you as you discover the Gulf Islands. Orcas, porpoises, sea lions, seals and other sea mammals call the waters surrounding the park home. Eagles, alcids and fulmars fly overhead. Hundreds of species of seabirds, shorebirds and waterfowl live here in stop-over on their annual migrations.} \quad \text{See more at: \url{bcferries.com}}\]

\[\text{Hiking} \quad \text{From easy shoreline trails to eye-popping mountain climbs, Gulf Islands National Park Reserve has it all. So lace up and prepare for an adventure! To learn about the vessels, please visit: \url{parkscanada.gc.ca/gulfislands}}\]

\[\text{Boating + Kayaking} \quad \text{Some campgrounds are accessible by water only. For more information, call: 1-877-737-3783.} \quad \text{See more at: \url{parkscanada.gc.ca/gulfislands}}\]

\[\text{Campground Information} \quad \text{Camping permit holders must be 18 years of age or older.} \quad \text{Alcohol consumption is only permitted on a registered campsite.} \quad \text{For more information, visit: \url{parkscanada.gc.ca/gulfislands}}\]

\[\text{Coast Salish Traditions} \quad \text{The Gulf Islands are part of the homeland of the Coast Salish First Nations. They have lived in this region for thousands of years and their knowledge, culture and oral history have been passed from generation to generation. Since time immemorial, the land and sea have nourished and sustained Coast Salish communities and their ties to the natural world can be seen in all aspects of their culture.} \quad \text{Discover these connections first-hand by participating in a Coast Salish Traditions activity this summer!} \quad \text{See more at: \url{facebook.com/GulfIslandsNPR}}\]

\[\text{BC Ferries Coastal Naturalist Program} \quad \text{During the summer months, Parks Canada and BC Ferries present the Coastal Naturalist program. These naturalists give talks about the surrounding shoreline and islands and how to enjoy these resources.} \quad \text{See more at: \url{bcferries.com}}\]

\[\text{Wildlife} \quad \text{Pinch me—this can’t be real!} \quad \text{An amazing variety of wildlife awaits you as you discover the Gulf Islands. Orcas, porpoises, sea lions, seals and other sea mammals call the waters surrounding the park home. Eagles, alcids and fulmars fly overhead. Hundreds of species of seabirds, shorebirds and waterfowl live here in stop-over on their annual migrations.} \quad \text{See more at: \url{bcferries.com}}\]
Hiking, Camping and Boating Guide

Prevost Island

Campgrounds (Sidney)

boating facilities

Russell Island

Campground

boating facilities

Princess Margaret (Portland Island)

Campground (Sidney)

boating facilities

McDonald Park Campground (Sidney)

boating facilities

Sidney Spit

Campground

boating facilities

Isle-de-Lis (Rum Island)

Campground

boating facilities

O’Arcy Island

Campground

boating facilities

Mayne Island

Campground

boating facilities

Cabbage Island

Campground

boating facilities

Tambo Island

Campground

boating facilities

Saturna Island

Campground

boating facilities

Pender Island

Campground

boating facilities

Skagit Island

Campground

boating facilities