

Site Plan

Structures Location

To prevent invasion from the Richelieu River, one of the entrance road to Canada, Ile-aux-Noix has been fortified many times since 1759 and a garrison occupied it until 1870.

A strategic point for the defense of the colony, whether it was French or British, Ile-aux-Noix played an important role in three major conflicts: the Seven Years' War, the American War of Independence and the War of 1812.

In the 19th century, Ile-aux-Noix harboured a naval base and dockyard built by the British during the War of 1812. In addition to the naval establishment, many buildings occupied the outside of the present fort.

Facilities

- Parking
- Washroom Facilities
- Picnic Area

Legend

- Designated Place
- Parks Canada Property
- Area of Archaeological Remains

- Officers' Quarters
- Guardhouse
- Northern Casemates
- Gate and North Passage
- Redan Passage
- South Passage
- Soldiers' Barracks
- Western Casemates
- Armory
- Quartermaster's Store
- Latrines
- Powder Magazine

