

Prince Albert National park offers amazing facilities, services and natural wonders for you to enjoy while practicing social distancing this summer. To ensure the safety of visitors and employees, Parks Canada is gradually restoring visitor access and services, focusing on autonomous day use of trails, grounds, and other outdoor settings.

Beginning June 1, 2020, the following services and activities are available:

Motorized vehicle access

Visitors can enjoy a scenic drive on most roads and watch for wildlife or visit some their favourite places in Prince Albert National Park.

Park entrance gate kiosks

Parks Canada staff will be at park entry gates to provide information about the services currently available. Visitors can also call 306-663-4522 or email pc.princealbertinfo.pc@canada.ca

Day use areas and beaches

(including fire pits and pit toilets)
Spend the day at the beach, enjoy a campfire and eat a picnic lunch at one of the many great day use areas on Waskesiu Lake. Remember to maintain social distancing and respect provincial guidelines on gatherings.

Hiking and biking trails

(including pit toilets)
Most day-use trails are open for you to enjoy. Pack the essentials and maintain social distancing while on the trail.

Recreational boating and paddling

Boat launches are open for recreational boating on Waskesiu Lake and the Hanging Heart Lakes. Paddlers can also enjoy Shady Lake as well as the Waskesiu and Spruce rivers. Boaters and anglers should follow provincial guidelines with regards to group size and members.

Fishing

Fishing is open on Waskesiu, the Hanging Heart, and Shady Lakes. All anglers require a Prince Albert National Park fishing permit. Permits are available at marina locations throughout the park.

Public washroom facilities in Waskesiu

The small beach house washroom by the community hall in Waskesiu is available for public use. Please respect social distancing guidelines and practice safe hygiene and hand washing.

Retail shops and restaurants

Restaurants and retail shops in Waskesiu are permitted to open in accordance with provincial guidelines. Be sure to contact businesses directly to learn about their current service offer.

While visitors can now access and enjoy the park, to reduce health and safety risks to visitors and employees, the following services remain suspended and area closures are in effect until further notice;
